

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

December's Advent and Christmas seasons focus on waiting and celebration. Epiphany is a time to watch God's work through Christ be revealed. This feels fitting, right now, as we might wonder how God can be working in the troubling events around us. A recent letter from Bishop Dee Pederson of our Southwestern Minnesota Synod addressed these difficulties. Her words can guide us on our continued journey to live, work, and worship together with hope and trust.

Pastor Sherri

Dear church, I know that everyone in your congregation does not agree on what [our current events] mean or what should be done. As one called to shepherd God's people and bear faithful witness with love, gentleness, wisdom, and courage, I see the many contexts in which you live. I see pastors wrestling with Scripture, loving their people, and seeking to speak faithfully in these days. I see neighbors going out of their way to care for others. I see faithful members of our congregations taking seriously their daily work in emergency services and local law enforcement. I see congregations who know there are no easy answers free of tension. I am convinced Scripture provides some direction—and that this is not what God intends for this world.

- Isaiah calls us to be "repairers of the breach."
- Micah teaches: "Do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with your God."
- Jesus leaves no ambiguity: "Love your neighbor as yourself."
- Each week we pray, "Thy will be done on earth as in heaven."

You are beloved children of God. As followers of Jesus, we are given faith practices to sustain us in times of tension and challenge:

- Prayer, worship, singing, learning, serving, generosity, and community.
- The Ten Commandments to protect us and our neighbors and temper our rhetoric.
- Bible study and our Lutheran confessions to ground us.

Even when we disagree about many things, we hold on to our Christian and civic responsibilities. ...We are church together. Grace and Peace, Bishop Dee Pederson

Keep in Our Prayers

Our community and country, that all are safe; that all are kind
Students, teachers, and all school staff, navigating difficult times
All in public service or office; that all lead with compassion
People in Ukraine, Gaza, Sudan, and Syria and other places of war
Jean Carlson (mother of Brooke Simenson), struggling with cancer
The Gruis family as they grieve the death of Kelly's mother Murlene Gruis
All receiving treatment or recovering from illness or injury; all caregivers

Ebenezer President, Wayne Zarnott, called the meeting to order at 7:45 pm (following Advent services).

Approval of Agenda: Motion made by Karen Oswood, seconded by Mary Redepenning, to approve the agenda as printed. Motion carried.

Devotions: Karen Oswood led devotions.

Secretary's Report: Reviewed November 11, 2025, joint council minutes with no additions or corrections. Motion to accept by Pam Vruwink, seconded by Karen Oswood. Motion carried.

Pastor's Report: Reviewed activities for November and December.

LYO Report: Jim Oyen reported that approximately 135 people were served at Turkey Bingo on November 21 raising $1500.

Old Business: There was no old business.

New Business: Reviewed the weather-related announcement policy.

The next meeting will be held on January 6, 2026, due to a scheduling conflict.

Motion to adjourn by Frank Ziebarth, seconded by Karen Deisting. Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted,
Betsy Hallberg

Tripolis Church Council Meeting
December 10, 2025
Location – Ebenezer

Members: Craig Aurand, Angie Dahlberg, Jeanette Jacobson, David McClain, Jim Oyen, Pam Vruwink, and Frank Ziebarth
Members absent in BOLD

President, Frank Ziebarth, called the meeting to order at 7:45pm.

Approval of Agenda: The agenda was reviewed and Organ Repairs, Payroll Management, and Creation Care Team Group was added. Motion to approve the updated agenda was made by Craig, seconded by Angie. Motion carried.

Secretary's Report: November 11, 2025 meeting minutes were reviewed with no additions or corrections made. Motion made to approve November meeting minutes by Jeanette, seconded by Jim. Motion carried.

Treasurer's Report: The treasurer's report will be next month.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Christian Education – Jeanette Jacobson: The Sunday School Christmas program will be on Sunday. Thanks to everyone who has helped get ready for it!

Worship/Music – Pam Vruwink: No report.

Council Members on Duty: December is Pam and Angie, January is Frank and Jeanette.

Community Building – Craig Aurand: No report.

Youth – Jim Oyen: Poultry Bingo meal was on November 21 with good attendance.

Memorial – Angie Dahlberg: No report.

Finance/Stewardship – Frank Ziebarth and Craig Aurand: Will be meeting in January.

Property – David McClain: No report.

New Business

Annual Congregational Meeting: Will be January 25, 2026 and committee reports are due January 11, 2026.

Organ Repair: There was an issue with a key on the organ. It has otherwise been a good organ so was repaired for $800.

Payroll Management: Since payroll is becoming more complex with different laws there was discussion if it should be outsourced to an accounting firm. It would cost $80 a month to have Anfinson Thompson manage the church payroll. Craig made a motion to outsource payroll to Anfinson Thompson, seconded by Jeanette. Motion carried.

Creation Care Team: Calvary had reached out about their Creation Care Team if Tripolis would be interested in starting a similar group. The Creation Care Team is a group focused on caring for God's creation through environmental stewardship. Pam will meet with Jack at Calvary to get more information.

Motion to adjourn meeting by Craig, seconded by Jeanette. Motion carried.

Closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully Submitted,
Angie Dahlberg, Secretary
